

ROBERT P. DOREMUS, EXCHANGE MAINSTAY, MORGAN FRIEND, DEAD

Prominent Yachtsman Succumbs to Same Disease That Recently Killed His Mother.

One of the main pillars of the New York Stock Exchange, Robert P. Doremus, a member of the Board of Governors, is dead at his residence in the Aptorp, No. 221 Broadway. Funeral services will be held to-morrow at 1:30 o'clock from All Angels' Church, West End Avenue and Eighty-first street.

Commodore Doremus was one of the best known brokers in Wall street. He was high in the esteem of J. Pierpont Morgan sr., who was a warm personal business friend. His fortune probably will run into the millions.

His business methods, while up to date, were old school at their base. His firm, De Coppel & Doremus, specialized in handling old lot orders, reaching all over the country through many branches for them, but Mr. Doremus often said: "My firm never seeks to influence a customer's judgment except to warn him when to get out of the market, and we don't speculate ourselves."

Mr. Doremus was a member of the committee that probed the failure of A. R. Brown & Co., and freed the members of that firm from the Exchange. When Gov. Hughes's investigating committee made its report on Exchange methods Mr. Doremus was the leader of the element that put through a number of drastic reforms.

Gruff to strangers but genial and absolutely frank to those upon whom he had passed favorable judgment, Mr. Doremus was one of the strongest personalities in Wall street. He always disdained being in the limelight, which accounts for his not being at some time President of the Exchange. His standing is shown by the fact that he was chairman of the Clearing House Committee of the Exchange almost continuously since its formation twenty years ago.

As a yacht owner Commodore Doremus was widely known. His ocean-going Guinevere cost $307,000, and is probably one of the finest craft of its kind afloat. He was a member of the Atlantic and New York Yacht Clubs, and was Vice-Commodore of the former. He also once owned the yacht Lascas, which he put into commission.

As a collector of Chinese porcelain Mr. Doremus was widely known in art circles. His vases alone are estimated to be worth $50,000 and they stood around his library.

He would sometimes spend a whole evening arranging them, so fond he was of them. The collection is probably the next best after the Morgan collection in the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Mr. Doremus was in his fifty-fifth year. He was ill ten days ago with pneumonia. The physicians cured, but there followed a congestion of the kidneys from which he died. Curiously his mother died from the same affliction only a few months ago. He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Jessie Raymond Doremus.

"Keep Philippines" Petition. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—John H. Hagan, a New York manufacturer, one of the travelers on the steamship Cleveland's world tour, has drawn up a resolution which will be sent to President-elect Wilson and in which the passengers ask that the Philippines shall never be taken away from the United States.

SEVEN HOURS' SLEEP; NO MORE, NO LESS.

You Can't Be Fit Otherwise, and May Turn Criminal, Says Dr. Foertmeyer.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 3.—"Seven hours' sleep is all that is necessary for any human being, and if obtained regularly in certain hours nightly will keep the body and mind in a healthy state," said Dr. Foertmeyer, Coroner of Cincinnati, regarded as an authority on criminology.

"Much of the disease of to-day is due to too much or too little sleep. A person who sleeps over seven hours has had too much rest, which makes the mind sluggish and the muscles lazy. On the other hand, the person who has not had sufficient sleep is mentally and physically unfit to perform his or her duties with that snap and vim found in persons who have had the required rest."

"Men and women who commit crime, as a rule are long sleepers. Their minds grow weak from too much sleep and then they acquire the 'don't care' attitude."

Lungs Were Affected Now in Good Health

It is beyond human power to perform miracles. The makers of Eckman's Alternative, a remedy for Consumption, do not claim that it will restore every one to perfect health, but so many have voluntarily testified that it saved their lives that all who have this dread disease should investigate and try it. It should stop the night sweats, reduce fever, promote appetite and, in very many cases, prolong life. Read what it accomplished in this case:—

"Gentlemen: In the year 1908 I was taken with a heavy cold and a nasty cough and went to several doctors, including a specialist. Their medicines failed. I then went to the Catskills, but the cough still kept up. I stayed there a year and then went on a farm near Jersey City, a very sick man. "My brother then recommended Eckman's Alternative to me very highly. At first I would not consent to use it, owing to the fact that I had taken so many medicines without being helped in any way, but finally I consented. It is now nearly two years since I first took it. I am now cured and I dare say that I would have been buried long ago if it had not been for Eckman's Alternative. I wish to thank you for the goodness to me. Wherever I go I highly recommend the Alternative, as I owe my life to it."

Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain opium, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by Riker, Hesseman, Drug Stores, and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet telling of recovery. Write to Eckman Laboratories, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

A SOUR, GASSY, UPSET STOMACH.

habit, which often results in crime. "Make it a rule to sleep seven hours and you will be better for it, mentally, physically and financially."

Pope's Diapiesin regulates your stomach and ends indigestion in five minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach—what portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt, if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapiesin and in five minutes you truly will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pope's Diapiesin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.
